About The SAMS Group Course Studies

SAMS Study Working Groups are offered in conjunction with the NACFP Midsummer Family Medicine Digest. However, you do not need to register for the conference in order to attend. You must be currently enrolled with the American Board of Family Medicine (ABFM) to register for these courses and to receive MC-FP credits. For more information on enrollment, please contact the ABFM at 877-222-7432. You must also be sure to provide your ABFM ID number or your AAFP ID number for pre-registration for this workshop. If you have any questions regarding the SAMS Study Working Groups, please contact NACFP Meetings Department at 919-833-2110 or 800-872-9482 (NC Only) prior to registering for the course.

What is a SAMS Study Working Group? Physicians who have completed one of the ABFM Mastering Procedures seminars will be provided with a complimentary code to complete the knowledge assessment section for the MC-FP SAMS requirement (Part IV) of the course.

What do I need to do to attend SAMS Study Working Groups? After completing the session, AAFP staff report your participation to ABFM. Your name will be registered to the ABFM Web site, pay the necessary fees, and complete the clinical simulation section. The clinical simulation section presents participants with realistic scenarios designed to optimize the practice of medicine. Once you have completed these steps, you have completed Part IV of the MC-CF.

How do I earn CME Credit? Fifteen (15) CME credits are awarded for successfully completing each Part II Module. Once you have completed all of the clinical simulations, you will earn a certificate to your credit on the AAFP's Continuing Medical Education Records Department.
