

Alisa Nance, MD, RPh

North Carolina Academy of Family Physicians President

Nance Medical Consulting
Consultant

704-351-0982

alisanance2@gmail.com

Alisa C. Nance, MD, RPh. attended the University of North Carolina - Chapel Hill graduating in 1992 with a BS degree in Pharmacy. She attended Wake Forest University Medical School and graduated in 1996. She completed her residency in 1999 at Memorial Hermann Southwest in Houston, TX as chief resident. She was employed with Piedmont Healthcare multi-specialty group in Mooresville, NC from August 1999 to February 2018 and served on their Board of Directors for ten years. Dr. Nance opened her own practice, Nance Family Medicine in 2005. She is a designated diplomat with the prestigious National Lipid Association. This year, Dr. Nance started Nance Medical Consulting, LLC. She has participated in many lecture series through educational grants, the NCAFP and the AAFP, as content reviewer and lecturer across the country. Dr. Nance has also served in several capacities of the NCAFP. She was chair of the NCAFP's Continuing Medical Education Council for four years and was program chair of the NCAFP's 2015 and 2016 Mid-Summer Family Medicine Digest. In 2018, Dr. Nance serves as President for the NCAFP. Dr. Nance resides in her hometown of Mooresville. She is married to her husband, Tom, and has two sons.